The Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand Were Hosts to M. and Mme. Carre at French Embassy Today.

THE ambassador of France and Mme. Jusserand entertained at luncheon today at the embassy in compliment to Prof. and Mme. Carre, who are spending several days in Washington on their way south from New York. Prof.
Carre is a lecturing professor at Columbia University and gave a talk before the Alliance Francaise yesterday afternoon.

The ambassador of Peru and Senora de Peset will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. A. Washington Peset, their son and daughter-in-law, who will arrive from New York Saturday to spend Christmas with them at Wardman Park Hotel. The ambassador and Senora de Peset will entertain at dinner Monday evening, having only the members of their family and the members of the embassy staff.

Senor Luis Peset, nephew of the ambassador, who came to Washington with them, will sail for his home December 25.

Mrs. Coolidge Guest at Lunch of Mrs. Mulvane.
Mrs. Coolidge was the guest of honour at a charmingly appointed luncheon in the presidential suite at the New Willard today, when Mrs. David W. Mulvane was hostess.
Corresponding with the red decoration of the room and suggestive of the Christmas season were the beautifully arranged clusters of red roses and white lilacs, over which shed the light from red candles with dainty red shades.

Mrs. Mulvane's guests, besides Mrs.
Coolidge, were Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall, Mrs. George Sutherland, Mrs.
Hubert Work, Mrs. Albert B. Pull, Mrs. Henry C. Wallace, Mrs. Herbert Hoover, Mrs. James E. Watson, Mrs.
William M. Clader, Mrs. Andrew A.
Jones, Mrs. Arthur Capper, Mrs. C.
McChord, Mrs. Rufus Day, Mrs.
Merritt W. Ireland, Mrs. John A. Hull, Mrs. Davis H. Blair, Mrs. Thomas E. Campbell, wife of the governor of Arizona, Mrs. John H. Bartlett, Mrs.
Warren Irving Glover, Mrs. Rush L.
Holland, Mrs. Daniel R. Anthony, Jr., Mrs. Edward Everett Gann, Mrs. James Carrick, Mrs. James H. Walsh, Mrs. George Meata, Mrs. James Green and Mrs. George M.
Crawford.

Mr. and Mrs. Mulvane, who make their home at Wardman Park Hotel, will leave Washington New Year eve for their home in Kansas, to be absent for some weeks.

The Secretary of Labor and Mrs.
Davis will have with them for Christmas the former's brother, Mr. Davis J. Davis of Sharon, Pa., who will arrive in Washington Friday. Mrs. Davis' mother and sister, Mrs. Rodenberg and Miss Lydia Rodenberg, will come from their home in Pittsburgh Sunday to remain over Christmas.

The Secretary and Mrs. Davis were hosts at dinner Sunday evening, entertaining the governors of Missouri, the city of childhood, maintained by the Loyal Order of the Moose, and of which the Secretary is director general. Their guests were Mr. John J. Lentz, Mr. John W. Ford, Judge Bailey, W. E. Donaghy, Mr. E. M. Oswald, Mr. Irish H. Brandon, Mr. J. W. Pierson, Mr. Albert Bushnell Hart and the assistant secretary of Labor and Mrs. E. J. Henning.

The minister of Switzerland and Mme. Peter entertained a company of twenty at dinner last evening in honor of the ambassador of Germany and Mme. Wiedfeldt.

Senator and Mrs. Selden P. Spencer will entertain at dinner this evening in honor of Gov. Arthur M. Hyde of Missouri, in the presidential suite at the New Willard Hotel. Covers will be laid for twenty.

Representative and Mrs. Frank H.
Funk have issued invitations for a dance Tuesday evening, January 2, at the Congressional Club, for their daughter, Miss Mary Funk. Their son, Mr. Benjamin Funk, who is a student at Yale University, accompanied by a classmate, Mr. William Hamilton of New Haven, is spending the holidays with Representative and Mrs. Funk, and will remain until after the dance.

Mrs. Funk has issued invitations for a luncheon Tuesday, December 26, at Rauscher's, for her daughter, Miss Mary Funk, in honor of Miss Mary Palmer.

Mrs. Frank S. Hight entertained a company at luncheon today at the New Willard Hotel, when her guests were Mrs. Henry Wilder Keyes, Mrs.
William Holland Wilmer, Mrs. Delos A. Blodgett, Mrs. Charles G. Matthews, Mr. James A. Drain, Mrs. Hampson Gary, Mrs. John Walker Holcombe, Mrs.
T. Septimus Austin, Mrs. William Kenney, Mrs. Edwin Fuller, Mrs.
Mark Reid Yates and Mrs. George Oakley Totten, Jr.

Mrs. Alfred Pembroke Thom gave a luncheon today for her clubmates, Miss Josephine Willford, in honor of Miss Virginia Edwards. The other guests were Miss Laura Bryn, Miss Beatrice Pitney, Miss Emily Dial, Miss Margaret Sutherland, Miss Helen Campbell, Miss Alice Milburn, Miss Louise Anderson, Miss Emma Stitt, Miss Cecil Lester Jones, Miss Catherine Weller, Miss Catherine Radcliffe, Miss Dorothy Warren, Miss Virginia Selden, Miss Elizabeth Duryea Walter, Miss Frederic Mc-Kenney, Miss Elizabeth Taylor Jones, Miss Elizabeth Marbury Beale, Miss Elizabeth Turner, Miss Asenath Simpson Cox, Miss Lisenard Scar-bury, Miss Charlotte MacDougall, Miss Ruth Miller Green and Mrs.

George D. Hope. Mrs. Thom had a centerpiece on the table of miniature each holding a bouquet of real flowers, and wide ribbons of dabs-tante colors, in old rose and French blue, were stretched across the table.
Mrs. Thom will be hostess to another company at breakfast Sunday for Miss Willford.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Mitchell gave a dance last evening for the latter's daughter, Miss Louise Anderson, who made her formal bow to society. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell entertained at Rauscher's, and about 400 guests dined until 12:30 o'clock, when a seated supper was served in the dining room. Plantation songs and mellodies were sung during the supper, and the company returned to the ballroom to dance a short time longer. The ballrooms were decorated with white chrysanthemums and gay poinsettias blossoms, the flowers arranged in baskets hanging before the mirrors and festoons of southern smilax veiling the windows and wall spaces between.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell received in the small ballroom, and were assisted by Miss Anderson, her cousin, Miss Martha Hawley and Miss Elizabeth Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Adams of Iowa. Mrs. Mitchell wore a gown of hyacinth blue-bead-ed net over blue georgette crepe, trimmed with chinchilla fur, and a corsage bouquet of orchids. Miss Anderson was in white velvet, the skirt made full and long and cut in points, heavily embroidered in crystals and pearls. The waist was plain, made with batteau neck and short, tight sleeves. Tulle draperies at each hip were held by clusters of rosebuds, and she carried pink and white roses.
Miss Hawley was in pale pink taffeta draped over cloth of silver, the skirt made short at one side, showing the silver cloth, and Miss Adams wore rose velvet, embroidered in sapphire beads, and they both carried old-fashioned bouquets.

Mrs. David H. Kincheloe and Jean Kincheloe, wife and daughter of Representative Kincheloe of Kentucky, are leaving Washington tomorrow to spend Christmas at their home in that state. They will probably be absent for three weeks.

Miss Caroline Thom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Corcoran Thom, is making her formal bow to society this afternoon at a tea which her mother is giving from 4 to 7 o'clock, in their home, 1905 F Street. Miss Thom is assisted by Miss Beatrice Pitney, Miss Rosamond Castle, Miss Margaret Eustice and Miss Mildred Titus. Assisting at the tea table are Mrs. Robert Woods Bliss, Mrs. Frederick H.
Brooks, Mrs. Henry Benning Spencer and Mrs. Charles C. Glover, Jr., who will alternate through the afternoon.
Mrs. Thom is wearing a gown of naper blue crepe de chine, draped, and her daughter is in white crepe de chine, long skirt unsewn in length and the waist embroidered in pearls. She is carrying American
